Belly Button Quilt

Size: 45" x 56"

- Fabric Needed:
- 1/3 yard each of 2 different pink prints for center X blocks ♥
- 1/3 yard each of 2 different grey prints for center X blocks ♥
- 2 3/8 yard yellow polka dot print for center X blocks and outer scallop border.
(Outer border is cut lengthwise to avoid seams) ♥
- 2 3/4 yard white with pink dots background for Center X Blocks and inner border. ♥
- 3 1/2 yards backing ♥
- 1/2 yard binding OR 3/8 yard piping fabric (I used a grey print) ♥
- Other tools used:
- Bellybutton X-Block ruler (Red Label) is required for class. ♥
- Sewing Machine and accessories, extra fine patchwork pins (they are my favorite pins. They go into your fabric like butter), small scissors, seam ripper (just in case:)), 4 1/2" X 12" Creative Grid ruler (Nice size for cross cutting strips), 6 1/2" X 24" ruler, rotary cutter and mat, large fabric scissors, thread to match fabric (Aurifil is a great choice).
- Optional: fabric grips for x-block ruler and other rulers to prevent slipping.
- Easy Scallop Ruler - Optional, only if you are planning on doing the scallop border ♥
- Wonder Marker for marking scallops on yellow polka dot border. ♥
- Fine Finish Ruler by Buttercup quilts for piping - Optional for piping around edge of scallops. ♥
- Twine or cording for piping. Brand and weight of cording is suggested on piping ruler.

Pre-cutting before class:

Of EACH of the 1/3 yard prints of 2 pink and 2 grey fabrics cut (6) 1 3/4" strips x WOF (width of fabric) for center blocks.

Yellow polka dot print:

Cut (16) 1 3/4" strips x WOF for center blocks

Leave remaining fabric for large outer border. You will cut your borders LENGTHWISE. It is best to wait to finish the center of the quilt before you measure and cut the borders out. Measurement of your center may vary.

White with pink dot background print:

Cut (5) 2" strips x WOF for Inner Border. Set Aside.

Cut (46) 1 3/4" strips x WOF for center blocks
